Cullen | Dykman

Neil Yoskin Successfully Obtained Denial of Temporary Injunctive Relief in a Case of First Impression as Reported by TIME

January 13, 2023

Neil Yoskin of Cullen and Dykman LLP successfully obtained a denial of temporary injunctive relief in a case of first impression as reported by TIME. Mr. Yoskin, as environmental counsel for the City of North Wildwood, had previously led the City's efforts in seeking an "Emergency Authorization" from the NJDEP to build a bulkhead to provide North Wildwood with severely needed coastal protection. The NJDEP denied the City's Emergency Authorization application and then instituted a lawsuit seeking to, among other things, temporarily enjoin North Wildwood from building the emergency bulkhead. The firm opposed the application for temporary injunctive relief and, ultimately, the court denied the NJDEP's application. The case has garnered national media attention due to the public's growing concern about climate change. To read more, please see the following article from TIME: https://time.com/6242869/new-jersey-town-sea-wall-climate-action/

About Cullen and Dykman

Cullen and Dykman (www.cullenllp.com) has been providing legal services to institutional clients since 1850. The firm represents a wide range of clients, including banks and other financial institutions, energy, telecommunications and water companies, construction companies, insurers, educational institutions, religious organizations, and not-for-profits. With over 190 attorneys in seven offices located throughout the Northeast and Mid Atlantic regions, Cullen and Dykman is strategically positioned to meet the changing needs and demands of our clients.

Practices

- Environmental

Attorneys

- Neil Yoskin