November 2, 2020

Partner Charles F. Gergel and associate Devon Pope represented Rocco Trotta, the founder and chairman of The LiRo Group (“LiRo”), a preeminent engineering, architecture, and construction management group of companies, in the acquisition of the LiRo Group by Global Infrastructure Solutions, Inc. (“GISI”). GISI’s partner companies comprise the largest privately-owned construction manager in the building and manufacturing marketplace, with approximately 3,300 employees, and annual revenues of more than $8 billion. LiRo has approximately 1,000 employees and is ranked 11th on the 2019 list of top 100 construction management-for-fee firms by trade journal Engineering News-Record. As part of the transaction, Mr. Trotta became a substantial shareholder in GISI.
