

Banking and Financial Services

Banking and financial services are at the core of our firm's practice. Our lawyers represent some of the largest U.S. and international financial institutions and a variety of financial services companies, ranging from regional financial powerhouses to national credit unions to local community banks. With a team of highly experienced lawyers and a comprehensive suite of expert practice areas, we serve these clients in virtually every way possible.

Our lending practice is second to none. The lawyers in our Banking and Financial Services department have extensive experience in all types and phases of transactional lending activity, including traditional commercial real estate (CRE) lending, commercial and industrial (C&I) transactions, complex syndicated lending and secondary-market transactions. Our practice groups cover all types of mortgage and credit facilities, including loan facilities covered by derivative products such as swaps and caps, and transactions involving 1031 and reverse 1031 exchanges. Our attorneys are experts in the fields of equipment leasing and financing, solar finance, transportation finance, asset-based lending, small business lending, industrial revenue bonds, and tax-advantaged lending. Virtually every type of commercial lending product is successfully closed by the firm.

Comprehensive, Contemporary and Uncompromising Representation for Banks and Other Lenders
