

Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner, to be Honored at Catholic Charities of Long Island's 19th Annual Golf Classic

August 27, 2021

Christopher H. Palmer, the Managing Partner of Cullen and Dykman LLP, will be honored at Catholic Charities of Long Island's 19th Annual Golf Classic. The event will take place on September 20th, 2021 at the Huntington Crescent Club in Huntington, New York.

"The mission of Catholic Charities of Long Island is as relevant and important today as it has ever been," said Palmer. "Catholic Charities of Long Island offers dignified and compassionate care to poor and vulnerable neighbors of every faith and background. Their work is inspired by the message that every human life is sacred. I will continue to do whatever I can to support their efforts."

Catholic Charities of Long Island began providing "Care With Dignity. . . Life With Hope" back in 1957. Catholic Charities is one of the major service providers of Long Island, with nearly 500 employees, a budget of over $38 million, and 68 sites from Elmont to the East End. The agency served 64,199 people in 2019. Catholic Charities is in ongoing contact with parishes to identify needs and develop new ways of responding across Long Island.

The extensive programs of Catholic Charities of Long Island provide meaningful help for some of our most disadvantaged and vulnerable neighbors at a time where it may seem like hope is running out.
