Cullen and Dykman Adds Environmental Lawyer Amie C. Kalac in Princeton

August 5, 2019

Princeton, NJ – August 5, 2019 - Cullen and Dykman continues to expand its Environmental practice with the addition of Amie Kalac as Of Counsel in the firm's Princeton office.

With over twenty years of experience, Amie represents corporate, municipal, and individual clients in a wide array of matters involving land use and the environment. Amie focuses her practice on counseling clients on identifying applicable federal and state environmental statutes, securing environmental and land use approvals, assuring regulatory compliance, and protecting their rights in enforcement matters or complex real estate transactions. She has also assisted clients on issues related to insurance coverage in the context of environmental claims.

Cullen and Dykman's Managing Partner Christopher H. Palmer stated, "Amie's experience and reputation in the environmental field will be of enormous value to our clients. Her skills and ability to navigate the challenging environmental regulatory climate bolsters our already formidable environmental practice in New Jersey and New York."

Amie earned her J.D. from Western New England School of Law and her B.A. from Boston College. She is admitted in U.S. District Court and New Jersey.

About Cullen and Dykman's Environmental Practice
