

Cullen and Dykman Attends 2019 Annual Conference of the National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA) in Denver, CO.

July 3, 2019

Cullen and Dykman was proud to be an Emerald Sponsor of the 59th Annual Conference of the National Association of College and University Attorneys, which took place in Denver, Colorado from June 23 to 26. The NACUA Annual Conference focuses on recent issues and legal developments in higher education law. Hayley Dryer, Kevin McDonough, James Ryan and Dina Vespia attended both large panel sessions and small table discussions focused on specific campus legal issues, such as student mental health, cybersecurity and data privacy, sexual misconduct, and international programs. The conference provides higher education attorneys with the opportunity to share insights and knowledge with institutional colleagues from across the country.

Cullen and Dykman's higher education practice group is a multidisciplinary team committed to helping colleges and universities navigate the ever-changing higher education landscape. Our attorneys have expertise in various areas affecting academic institutions, including regulatory compliance, labor and employment, governance, corporate transactions, bond financing, tax, intellectual property, real estate, construction, environmental, data privacy and cybersecurity, internal investigations, advising distressed institutions, and litigation.
