

Cullen and Dykman Expands Private Equity and Venture Capital Capabilities with New Formalized Practice

February 27, 2024

February 27, 2024 - Cullen and Dykman LLP, one of New York State's oldest law firms, proudly announces the formalization and expansion of its Private Equity and Venture Capital practice, solidifying its commitment to delivering comprehensive legal services to clients in this dynamic industry. Leveraging its longstanding expertise and strategic insights, the firm has appointed a dedicated team to enhance its capabilities in serving clients across all stages of their fund journey.

Led by partners Jeffrey Herz and Joseph Spina, Cullen and Dykman's Private Equity and Venture Capital practice serves a diverse range of clients, including middle-market and lower-middle-market private equity firms, growth equity funds, venture capital groups, independent fund sponsors, and various other private investors.

"We at Cullen and Dykman LLP stand committed to our clients' success. With a dedicated team and a wealth of expertise across multiple disciplines, we are primed to deliver tailored solutions for our firm's private equity and venture capital clients," said Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner at Cullen and Dykman LLP.

The practice offers thorough support to both sponsors and their portfolio companies in key areas such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, tax, labor and employment, management incentive plans, business reorganization, real estate, litigation support, intellectual property rights, and regulatory compliance.
