

Cullen | Dykman

Cullen and Dykman is a Proud Sponsor of the November Meeting of workOUT

October 16, 2020

Cullen and Dykman is a proud sponsor of the November meeting of workOUT, a membership organization that provides LGBTQ+ restructuring professionals opportunities for networking and business development within the restructuring industry. The group meets for networking and educational events three to four times per year in New York, gathers at industry conferences around the country, and also provides information to its members about other events for LGBTQ+ professionals in New York and nationwide.

For additional information on workOUT, please click here.

For additional information on our commitment to diversity and inclusion, please click here.