Cullen and Dykman LLP Welcomes Experienced Trust and Estates Attorney Debra A. Pandolfo

October 10, 2023

Uniondale, NY – Cullen and Dykman LLP proudly welcomes Debra A. Pandolfo as Of Counsel in its Trust and Estates department.

With over 25 years of experience, Debra focuses her practice on trust and estates, commercial and residential real estate and business transactions. She regularly drafts wills, revocable trusts, irrevocable trusts, special needs trusts, powers of attorney, health care proxies and other estate planning documents for clients in accordance with applicable law and handles probate and administration proceedings. Her diverse legal background includes advising clients with various types of transactions, including gifts, bequests, and tax consequences related to estates and trusts.

In her commercial and residential real estate practice, she has overseen complex transactions from inception to completion and negotiated leases. Debra also has a track record of guiding clients through various business transactions, including sales and purchases, contract negotiations, shareholders' agreements, operating agreements and entity formation.

"Debra will be an excellent addition to our thriving trusts and estate team. Her talent and vision in guiding clients through complicated estate planning matters will be a great asset to our clients and our firm," said Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner at Cullen and Dykman.

Debra added, "I am thrilled to be joining the Trusts and Estates team at Cullen and Dykman. As a long time Long Island resident, I have a deep understanding and perspective about the individuals and businesses in the community and I look forward to providing quality, personal service to our clients in the long standing Cullen and Dykman tradition."

Debra earned her J.D. from the Hofstra University School of Law and her B.S. from St. John's University. She is admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey.
