April 18, 2019

Cullen and Dykman recently hosted a Lenders' Forum sponsored by the Long Island Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association to discuss hot topics in distressed lending and provide an audience of bankers and turnaround practitioners with insight on the lending practices that impact their profession. Elizabeth Aboulafia, a partner in the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditor's Rights Department, moderated a lively panel discussion that included three experienced workout bankers: Robert C. Jussen, HSBC; Anthony Montemarano, Wells Fargo Capital Finance; and Bradley Stanza, Israel Discount Bank. Cullen and Dykman is a diamond sponsor of this event.
