Cullen and Dykman Strengthens Key Practice with New Partner Michael C. Manniello

September 2, 2025

New York and New Jersey – Cullen and Dykman LLP, a growing Northeast regional law firm proudly celebrating its 175th anniversary, is pleased to announce that Michael C. Manniello has joined the firm as partner. His addition strengthens the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights department, underscoring Cullen and Dykman's commitment to delivering exceptional counsel across its offices.

"We are thrilled to welcome Michael to the partnership," said Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner of Cullen and Dykman LLP. "He brings outstanding experience and a proven dedication to client service."

Michael concentrates his practice on residential and commercial mortgage lending and foreclosure and enforcement of lenders' rights. In addition to representing some of the largest mortgage servicers in the United States, in foreclosure trials, Michael has frequently appeared before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. There, he has argued complex issues such as standing, usury, waiver, the effect of notice of pendency, and the statute of limitations.

Michael earned his J.D. from Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University and his B.S. from New York University.
