
Cullen and Dykman Welcomes Edward J. Haye as Partner to Its Corporate Department

January 5, 2023

Cullen and Dykman is pleased to announce that it is expanding its Corporate practice with the addition of Edward J. Haye as Partner.

Ed has extensive experience representing regulated industries and government agencies. He has regularly advised energy and utility companies concerning regulatory policy and strategy, purchase and divestiture of assets, risk management and regulatory compliance, corporate governance, contract administration, and intellectual property.

Ed currently serves on Board of Directors of a Long Island regional bank and on the Board of Trustees of the Village of Sag Harbor. Most recently, he served as Vice President and Chief Regulatory Counsel for the largest publicly traded U.S. water and wastewater utility company.

Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner of Cullen and Dykman, stated that “We are pleased to announce that Ed Haye will be joining Cullen and Dykman. Ed’s extensive experience and leadership in the utilities practice area bolsters our already well-renowned and respected work in that area. Ed will provide counsel concerning all aspects of utility regulation and help guide our clients to cost-effective decisions consistent with their immediate and long-term business goals.”

Ed Haye added, “I chose to join Cullen and Dykman because of the value and service that they provide to their clients, and I am excited to work alongside some of the top professionals in the utility and banking industry.”

Ed earned his J.D. from Fordham University School of Law and his A.B. from Dartmouth College.
