Dina Vespia Named Chair of Cullen and Dykman's Diversity & Inclusion Committee

May 24, 2019

Dina Vespia, a partner in the firm's Corporate Department, has recently been named the Chair of the Diversity & Inclusion Committee at Cullen and Dykman LLP. The Diversity & Inclusion Committee is dedicated to helping the firm attract and retain a diverse group of attorneys who share the firm's commitment to excellence in legal services.

"I firmly believe that this firm's continued growth depends on us acting on our values of diversity and inclusion. With the full support of the firm's leadership, this committee enthusiastically accepts our responsibility to find new ways to foster a supportive environment that welcomes and retains the best legal minds representing diverse backgrounds and perspectives," said Dina.
