

Elizabeth M. Aboulafia Appointed by the New York Institute of Credit (NYIC) as Co-Chairperson of the Women's Division Committee

August 2, 2021

Elizabeth M. Aboulafia, partner in the Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights department, has been appointed by the New York Institute of Credit (NYIC) to serve as Co-Chairperson of the Women's Division Committee.

According to the NYIC's website, the mission of the Women's Division is to support the efforts of women in the credit and restructuring industry and related businesses. Through educational programming and networking opportunities, NYIC Women's Division strives to provide women with the tools necessary to succeed in business and in life.

Elizabeth practices in the areas of bankruptcy and restructuring as well as construction claims resolution and related contract matters. She advises companies as debtors in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and in out-of-court restructurings and workouts in a wide range of industries. In addition to company-side representations, Elizabeth has experience on every side of bankruptcy and workouts, frequently representing creditors, creditors' committees, equity holders and other key business stakeholders in debtor-creditor matters. Elizabeth approaches complex legal issues with practical-minded and business-oriented solutions.
