

Cullen and Dykman's Elizabeth A. Murphy to Present at NYBA's "History in Real Time" Virtual Speaker Series

February 25, 2021

Elizabeth A. Murphy, Partner in the firm's Banking and Financial Services department, will present at the New York Bankers Association's (NYBA) "History in Real Time" Virtual Speaker Series to be held on Friday, February 26, 2021, from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM.

NYBA's "History in Real Time" Virtual Speaker Series, Session Five, focuses on the key issues atop State and Federal regulatory agendas, as well as the political environment that impacts these initiatives.

Elizabeth will be discussing the regulatory environment during the workshop titled "New York in Focus: Regulatory Update and Outlook" from 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM.

According to its website, New York Bankers Association represents community, regional and money center commercial banks and thrift institutions in New York State with 200,000 employees and more than $10 trillion in aggregate assets.

Elizabeth handles regulatory, compliance, corporate and transactional matters for all types of financial institutions. This includes providing advice on issues such as cybersecurity, truth-in-lending, truth-in-savings, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), electronic banking and lending limits. Elizabeth regularly assists clients in complying with evolving privacy and cybersecurity laws and regulations.
