Jeffrey Hall-Gale is an associate in the firm's General Liability, Tort, and Insurance Defense department where he handles matters for individuals and businesses large and small that involve defective products, indemnification agreements, and insurance coverage disputes. Jeff has extensive experience defending insured individuals and entities in a variety of general liability contexts including automobile accidents, premises liability, and asbestos.

Prior to joining the firm, Jeff assisted in the prosecution of violations of the New Jersey Rules of Professional Conduct for the New Jersey Supreme Court's Office of Attorney Ethics. Jeff served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Shawn D. Meyers in the 39th Judicial District (Franklin/Fulton Counties) in Pennsylvania. While in law school, Jeffrey was a published author and Managing Editor of Outside Articles for the Villanova Environmental Law Journal. He was also a Managing Editor for the Villanova Journal of Catholic Social Thought.
