
Jennifer McLaughlin Receiving Board of Governors Award by Touro Law Center

March 1, 2017

Jennifer A. McLaughlin, a partner in the Firm's commercial litigation and intellectual property practice areas, will be receiving the Board of Governors Award at Touro Law Center's 2017 With Liberty and Justice for All Dinner. The dinner will be held Wednesday, April 26th at the Garden City Hotel.

Ms. McLaughlin regularly represents energy and pipeline entities, municipalities, financial and educational institutions in a wide array of commercial litigation matters before state and federal courts as well as in alternative dispute resolution forums. Her practice includes land use and zoning matters, acquisition of real property rights, Article 78 proceedings and defense of landowner challenges to utility and pipeline company construction and operation activities as well as complex tax constitutionality challenges on behalf of utility companies. Ms. McLaughlin also regularly litigates intellectual property matters involving unfair competition, trademark and copyright infringement in judicial and administrative tribunals.

Practices

- Commercial Litigation
- Intellectual Property

Industries

- Higher Education
- Financial Institutions