Cullen | Dykman

Jocelyn E. Lupetin Appointed by the New York State Bar Association as Member of the Committee on Diversity and Inclusion

June 1, 2021

Jocelyn E. Lupetin, associate in the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights department, has been appointed by the New York State Bar Association to serve as a member of the Committee on Diversity and Inclusion, effective June 1, 2021.

According to the New York State Bar Association's website, the objectives of the Committee on Diversity and Inclusion are to promote and advance the full and equal participation of attorneys of color and other diverse attorneys in the New York State Bar Association and in all sectors and at every level of the legal profession through research, education, fostering involvement and leadership development in NYSBA and other professional activities, and to promote knowledge of and respect for the profession in communities that historically have been excluded from the practice of law.

Jocelyn focuses her practice on creditors' rights and judgment enforcement. She has found success representing numerous banking institutions and other private creditors, both corporate and individual, in breach of contract matters as well as a variety of more-unique and nuanced types of disputes. Jocelyn serves her clients' needs in all phases of litigation, working cases from pre-lawsuit demand and settlement efforts through trial, and aggressive judgment enforcement.

For more information on the New York State Bar Association's Committee on Diversity and Inclusion: Click Here

About Cullen and Dykman

Cullen and Dykman (www.cullenllp.com) has been providing legal services to institutional clients since 1850. The firm represents a wide range of clients, including banks and other financial institutions, energy, telecommunications and water companies, construction companies, insurers, educational institutions, religious organizations, and not-for-profits. With over 190 attorneys in seven offices located throughout the Northeast and MidAtlantic regions, Cullen and Dykman is strategically positioned to meet the changing needs and demands of our clients.

Practices

- Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights

Attorneys

- Jocelyn E. Lupetin