

Joseph Simon is a Featured Speaker for National CLE Webinar on New York State's New Cybersecurity Regulation

April 12, 2017

Joseph D. Simon, a partner in the Firm's banking practice group, was a presenter for a national CLE webinar on navigating New York's new cybersecurity regulation and federal guidance for banks and other financial institutions.

This CLE webinar reviewed the new cybersecurity regulation issued by the New York Department of Financial Services, including which institutions are regulated and the staffing, reporting and third-party monitoring requirements imposed under the state regulation.

The webinar was held live on Wednesday, April 12, 2017 and a recording of the webinar is available at the link below.
