

Joseph Simon Speaks at New York Banker Association's Financial Services Forum

November 4, 2015

Joseph D. Simon, a partner in Cullen and Dykman's Banking Department, was a speaker at the New York Banker Association's 2015 Financial Services Forum on November 4, 2015. Mr. Simon was on a panel titled the "Evolving Landscape of Compliance Risk Management", and spoke about the extensive compliance and regulatory issues currently facing banks.

The NYBA Financial Forum is an annual conference that brings together one of the nation's most vibrant banking communities, including bank CEO's, directors, trustees and senior officers from financial institutions across New York State, as well as many industry service providers.

Mr. Simon concentrates his practice on compliance and regulatory matters for financial institutions, and is a member of NYBA's Lawyers' Advisory Committee.
