Partner Brendan J. Mooney Selected by Long Island Business News as 2025 Environmental Leader

December 2, 2025

Cullen and Dykman is proud to announce that Partner Brendan Mooney has been recognized by Long Island Business News ("LIBN") as one of the Long Island Business Influencers: Environmental Leaders. LIBN describes this year's honorees as professionals who "...have made a commitment to working to address the current environmental and climate issues we are facing."

Brendan advises clients on a broad range of environmental and land use development matters, including permitting, electric and natural gas regulations, facility operational compliance, and general regulatory compliance. He also represents clients in issues involving state and federal clean water and clean air laws, hazardous waste regulations, petroleum storage and discharge requirements, environmental due diligence, spill response cost recovery, environmental insurance coverage, and facility permitting.
