
Partner Brian Selchick Served as a Judge at SparkLab's 2024 Business Pitch Competition

May 17, 2024

Brian Selchick, a partner in the firm's Higher Education practice group and Labor and Employment department, served as a judge at SparkLab's 2024 Business Pitch Competition. The competition took place at Union College and on Zoom at 6:00pm. Congratulations to the winner, GolfShare, run by Matthew Peoples!

To Learn More About the Event: Click Here

About Startups and Emerging Companies

Cullen and Dykman's attorneys offer extensive experience and guidance in navigating diverse financing structures, such as convertible instruments, early series equity rounds and Regulation D offerings. Often, legal services encompass advising on securities law compliance, exploring instrument and investor options, drafting essential agreements, and managing SEC filings. Recognizing the distinct challenges encountered by emerging companies, our commitment lies in delivering personalized counsel tailored to assist our clients in achieving successful financing outcomes.

About Cullen and Dykman

Cullen and Dykman (www.cullenllp.com) has been providing legal services to institutional clients since 1850. The firm represents a wide range of clients, including banks and other financial institutions, energy, telecommunications and water companies, construction companies, insurers, educational institutions, religious organizations, and not-for-profits. With over 180 attorneys in seven offices located throughout the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions, Cullen and Dykman is strategically positioned to meet the changing needs and demands of our clients.

Practices

- Startups and Emerging Companies

Attorneys

- Brian B. Selchick