Partner David C. Wilkes Quoted in the Wall Street Journal's "MarketWatch"

May 14, 2024

David C. Wilkes, a property tax and valuation strategy partner in the firm's corporate department, was quoted in the Wall Street Journal's "MarketWatch." The article is titled, "My property-tax bill spiked 40%. I fought the city — and won. Can I get tax write-offs for my time and costs?"

David is an internationally recognized authority in complex commercial property taxation disputes, valuation law, and related litigation. He adeptly guides clients through crucial decisions in real estate investment and management, placing a specific focus on understanding the local tax implications of transactions and construction, and negotiating with local government to achieve his clients' objectives.
