Partner David Wilkes to Moderate the Young Jewish Professionals (YJP) Virtual Alumni Forum

February 20, 2024

David Wilkes, a property tax and valuation strategy partner in the firm's corporate department, will be a moderator for the Young Jewish Professionals (YJP) Virtual Alumni Forum. The session will take place on February 20th at 6:00pm in an online zoom conference.

Program Description: This virtual roundtable is part of our University Affinity Groups initiative, aimed at building a network of Young Jewish Alumni from various universities, enabling them to connect with other alumni and business leaders. This particular session is intended for current YJP members and alumni of Harvard, Cornell, UPenn, NYU, and Columbia. The forum will consist of breakout rooms with top business leaders, also alumni of these institutions, discussing topics such as combating antisemitism on campus and in the workplace, Israel advocacy, and philanthropy.
