
Partner Michael H. Traison Quoted in Law360 Article

October 23, 2024

Michael H. Traison, a partner in the firm's Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights department, was recently featured in a Law360 article titled, "More than Just Superheroes: Marvel Inked Ch. 11 Legacy." In the article, Michael discusses how the bankruptcy and reorganization of Marvel led to a legal precedent for conflict of interest standards in bankruptcy proceedings. He adds that the case highlights that impartiality in terms of professional retention is either obvious or up to the court's discretion.

Traison is a frequent contributor and author of plain language updates on legal developments. A former English teacher, his Client Alerts and responses to professional inquiries are tailored to meet the needs of clients who may not be lawyers. Based in Chicago and New York, Traison's practice is national and international in scope, focusing especially on Poland and Israel. Michael can be reached at: mtraison@cullenllp.com.
