
Partners David Wilkes and Kevin Clyne Publish Inaugural New York Law Journal Article on Sales Chasing in Reassessment Jurisdictions

November 18, 2024

As Co-Authors of the New York Law Journal's Tax Certiorari and Condemnation Column, partners David Wilkes and Kevin Clyne have published their inaugural article titled "Sales Chasing in a Reassessment Jurisdiction." In this piece, they examine the controversial practice of "sales chasing," typically associated with non-reassessment municipalities, and argue that it can occur just as frequently in reassessment jurisdictions, though it is harder to detect. David and Kevin further explore the proper legal methods for proving such occurrences in court.
