

Private Equity and Financial Sponsors

In the dynamic world of private equity, change is the only constant. Our Private Equity and Financial Sponsors practice is uniquely positioned to help clients navigate this fast-paced industry with agility and precision. We specialize in serving lower-middle-market private equity firms, independent sponsors, and search funds, offering tailored and cost-effective expertise that meets the distinct needs of this segment. We provide comprehensive support at every stage of their investment journey—from initial structuring and fundraising to executing transactions and achieving successful exits. We offer comprehensive legal services, including:

- Private Equity Transactions: Advising on leveraged buyouts, growth equity investments, and minority stake transactions across diverse industries and geographies.
- Fund Formation and Structuring: Assisting in the creation, structuring, and compliance of private equity funds, independent sponsor investment platforms, traditional search funds and other strategic investment vehicles.
- Portfolio Company Management: Guiding sponsors in portfolio company acquisitions, governance, recapitalizations, and divestitures.
- Exit Strategies: Advising on strategic exits to optimize returns for sponsors.
- Financing: Structuring and negotiating acquisition financing, refinancing, and other lending arrangements tailored to complex sponsor-backed deals.
- Dispute Resolution: Providing litigation and arbitration support related to fund management, portfolio disputes, and investment-related claims.

Why Choose Us?

At the core of our approach is a commitment to understanding our clients' strategic goals and delivering innovative, cost-effective solutions that drive results. We collaborate closely with our clients, acting as trusted partners to support their growth and the success of their portfolio companies. Whether guiding a search fund entrepreneur through their first acquisition or structuring complex deals for established private equity firms, our team is dedicated to creating value and achieving long-term success.
