

Sarmili Saha Published in the American Bar Association Section of Public Utility, Communications and Transportation Law Water Committee Report

September 24, 2016

Hoosick Falls Water Contamination Crisis Sparks State Action and Lawsuits

Sarmili Saha, an associate in the firm's Energy and Utilities practice area, was published in the American Bar Association Section of Public Utility, Communications and Transportation Law, Water Committee Report for the 2016 Fall Council Meeting. Ms. Saha discusses how the Hoosick Falls water crisis sparked state actions and lawsuits.

The article can be found at: http://www.americanbar.org/content/dam/aba/administrative/infrastructure-regulated-industries/water_2016_fall_committee_report.authcheckdam.pdf

Practices

- Energy, Renewables and Utilities

Industries

- Energy and Utilities