

Suzanne Melnyk Tripp

Associate

SMelnykTripp@cullenllp.com

New York City Office

Phone: 212.510.2265

Fax: 212.742.1219

Suzanne Melnyk Tripp is an associate in the firm's Not-for-Profit and Religious Organizations department. She represents clients in the formation of not-for-profit corporations as well as corporate governance matters, mergers, dissolutions, lease transactions, purchase and sale transactions, applications for real property tax exemptions, and water and sewer exemptions for newly acquired not-for-profit corporation real property. Suzanne is also an estate and trusts attorney who handles all aspects of will preparation, probate, estate administration, estate litigation, and estate tax matters.

Suzanne is certified by the Unified Court System to serve as a Guardian, Attorney for Alleged Incapacitated Persons and Supplemental Needs Trustee.

Areas of Concentration:

- Religious Corporations
- Commercial Leases

Practices

- Not-for-Profit and Religious Organizations
- Trusts and Estates
- Estate Planning
- Trust and Estate Administration
- Guardianships and Elder Law
- Wills, Trusts and Estate Litigation

Industries

- Not-for-Profit and Religious Organizations
- Real Estate

Bar Admissions

- New York

Education

- J.D., New York Law School, 1998
- B.A., Iona College, 1989

Professional and Community Activities

- Member, New York State Bar Association, 2000—Present
- Member, American Bar Association, 2000—Present
- Conducted several will seminars at Roman Catholic parish corporations in Manhattan